

Bojan Panic, PhD student of history, Faculty of Philosophy University of Nis
bojascp@gmail.com

Summary

VISIT OF THE SERBIAN DEPUTY STOJAN SIMIC TO WALLACHIA AND MOLDOVA AT THE END OF 1834

The paper presents the biography of Stojan Simic, one of the most important people in Serbian history of the 19th century, member of the Court of the Serbian People, deputy, Nahija elder, riot organizer, merchant, ombudsman, vice president and president of the State Council. The main part of the paper contains a description of Stojan Simic visit to the Danube principalities, Wallachia and Moldova at the end of 1834. At that time, the relations between the newly formed Principality of Serbia and the Danube Principalities were raised to a higher, official level.

Keywords: Wallachia, Prince Milos, Moldova, Stojan Simic.