Summary

NIŠ SPORT CLUB "GRAĐANSKI" (1926-1944) - IN THE PRESS

Niš Sports Club "Građanski" is one of the football gems that this city had and paid attention to for full eighteen years, from 1926 to 1944. To the fans of sports from that time, "Građanski" gave three consecutive championship titles in the Niš championship and the Subunion championship, as well as participation in the qualifications for the national league. The "Građanski" playground near the Pasteur Institute was a gathering place for true admirers of "the most important side things in the world". It gathered all those to whom "Građanski" as an exemplary football team was in the hearts and who dreamed their sports dreams with it. With the disappearance of "Građanski" from the sports and historical scene in 1944, a great injustice was done to the youth and true supporters of quality football in Niš.
