Martin Matijašević
Danilo Rončević

ORGANIZATION AND STRUCTURE OF THE SECURITY SYSTEM OF THE KINGDOM OF SHS / YUGOSLAVIA

Abstract: The paper analyzes the organization and structure of the institutions of the security system first of all in the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes and later in the Kingdom of Yugoslavia. The subject of the analysis is the military and police security services, organizational structure and focus areas of work. The authors point to the difficult socio-political, economic, security and demographic legacy that the newly formed kingdom inherited and conclude that the concept and security policy of the new state greatly affected the functionality of the kingdom's security system.

Keywords: security, army, police, organization, action